Description

Document Description

The Certificate of Origin Form A is a type of Certificate of Origin that allows imports from the countries included in the GSP (General System of Preferences) - developing countries - to qualify for the elimination or reduction of tariffs as this system gives preferential treatment .

This Certificate Of Origin Form A was adopted by the UNCTAD (United Nations Conference on Trade and Development) as a common certificate for products manufactured in countries that are included in the GSP.

This Certificate is issued by the Chambers of Commerce, customs, consular or duly authorized entities in the country of origin of the product.
