Description

Document Description

The Halal Certificate is a document that guarantees that the products and services aimed at the Muslim population meet the requirements of Islamic law and therefore are suitable for consumption in both Muslim-majority countries and in Western countries where there significant population group who practice Islam (France, Germany, United Kingdom).

It is mainly applied to meat products and other food products such as milk, preserves and additives.

Products that are halal certified are often marked with a halal symbol, or simply the letter M (as the letter K is used to identify kosher products for Jewish population).

There are several institutions and organizations around the word providing Halal Certification Services.
