Description

Description

This is a type of business letter that companies send to manufacturers and providers in international markets. It can be sent by postal mailed or, more usually, by e-mail in digital format.

This letter sample is written using a characteristic language of international business in a way that manages to offer a professional and formal image of the sender.

The letter template is in Word format so that you can add the names of the sender and recipient, describe products, indicate dates and deadlines, insert paragraphs, edit text, signatures, etc.

The language of this letter is English. It is also available in Spanish.
